You might want to consider sending an email to the board that it was a mistake and the plan in fact is still in development.

Well, The CA headline indicates that I spelled out the details of our new plan, which of course I did not.

I did cover the five broad areas that need to be addressed, as I did in Sunday's CA column.

The article itself notes that and is, I think, pretty good. It even does a good job of dealing with the stop and frisk issue.
